About Us

Founded in 1994, Women in Development of Northeastern New York (WIDNENY) was established by 12 women dedicated to promoting women in development, organizational advancement and related fields.

Today, membership has grown to more than 175 members in northeastern New York, western Vermont and western Massachusetts.

What We Do

Our members are committed to helping women, both professional and volunteer, advance within the field through educational programs, networking and mentoring opportunities.

WIDNENY's activities include quarterly programs, a comprehensive website and quarterly newsletter. See box at right for more member benefits.

"I highly recommend WIDNENY — even if you have been in the field for many years, the programs and resources are invaluable."

*-Linda London,
College of Saint Rose Professor/
Nonprofit Advisor*

"WIDNENY was my entry into development and continues to be my one-stop source for networking and learning what I need to be successful."

*-Darla Gullotta,
Schenectady SPCA Volunteer*
